DEDICATION

To Douglas Lozer, known as "Doug" to his many friends, the Senior Class of 1952 wish to dedicate this, our annual.

"Doug" has been with us eight years, and during this time he has not only done his utmost in keeping the classrooms neat and tidy, but has indeed been a true friend and pal to each and every one of us.

Thus we hope that in this small way we can show our appreciation and gratitude to him, who will always be "tops" on our list.

WASHINGTON TRIP

On the evening of May 30, 1951, the Junior class left the Toledo Union Station with light hearts and high hopes for this great nation's capital, Washington, D. C. At 6:40 P. M. the warriors were off to besiege the city of presidents. We all had a great time on the train. Of course everyone conducted himself as perfect ladies and gentlemen, and I still can't understand why one of the porters said he was quitting the next day. At any rate, our coach arrived still intact at Baltimore, Maryland, the next morning after a rather hard night. A bus was on hand to take us to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, and we toured the school in grand style. We lunched at the Open Door Restaurant, which later changed its name to the Closed Door Restaurant (closed to high school students, that is) and then went by bus to Washington. After arriving at Washington we were conducted on a grand tour of the city which included the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument. Some of the more energetic individuals set out to conquer the 52 flights of stairs leading to the top of the monument, and finally did so on tired, wobbly legs, and with tongues hanging out. A little later the human avalanche descended upon the Lafayette Hotel. That night most of us attended a theatre party at Loew's Capital Theatre. The next day everyone crawled dazedly out of bed and boarded our buses to take in some more of the capital's sights; the Smithsonian Institute, FBI Building, and the Bureau of Printing and Engraving. At this point everyone was trying to think of a fool proof way of escorting a couple of those nice, big green stacks of U. S. currency out of the building. The afternoon had been left open and everyone sought satisfaction in their own way. Gad! What fun! In the evening we visited Glen Echo Park and had a wonderful time. The next morning we were allowed to sleep late (till 9:00) and then visited the Capitol building, Supreme Court, and the Library of Congress. After lunch we went to Mount Vernon and Arlington National Cemetery. The tour ended at the railroad terminal and at 5:30 P. M. we entrained for home. We had dinner in the dining car and a few played a very interesting and educational game called, "Who can get away with the 'mostest' silverware, the fastest and undetected." All good things must come to an end, however, and the next morning we arrived at Toledo in a somewhat sleepy, bedraggled condition after a very, very enjoyable time which will be remembered by all for the rest of our lives.

RUNNING WILD

The Senior Class of 1952 presented their annual class play April 18. It was a comedy called "Running Wild," written by Glenn Hughes. Mr. Glenn Hilty was director of the play.

The play takes place in a Southern California resort, called the Desert Inn. Owner and manager of this resort is Carl Hammond (Roger Dailey).

Over the week-end he has a number of visitors. Among these is Max Goodwin (Ned Bechtel), a Hollywood film executive who is trying to get away from it all. In order to do this, he has registered as Mr. Jones, letting only Mr. Hammond in on the secret.

Mr. Goodwin was not very good in keeping his plans secret, because Don Thomas (Albert Sharpe), Mr. Hammond's nephew, came seeking him in order to obtain a job as a writer. Since Don did not know who Goodwin was, Mr. Goodwin and Mr. Hammond decided to get somebody to take the place of Goodwin. They elected Professor Cosmo Cheever (Don Nofzinger), a botanist, as their guinea pig.

Trying to get Mr. Goodwin's attention, Don decides to stage a murder scene at the inn. He has many people in his plot. Included in the plan are Victor Bunn (Cale Rash), who wants to be a G-man; Marian Gray (Bonnie O'Neill), Don's fiancée; Ed Smith (Dick Basich), Don's pal; Daphne "Daffy" Hatch (Donna Haas), Ed's girl friend; Sherry Lee (Sue Hartley) and Louise Latour (Jean Segrist), who want to be actresses; Jane Finch (Ruth Wachtmann), a spinster interested in wild flowers and Professor Cheever; Selma Bell (Nancy Falor), the colored maid, and Manuel (Jerry Lambert), a slow-moving Mexican houseboy.

Because a lot of gun shooting goes on by Mr. Bunn, Professor Cheever gets excited and calls Joe Mason (Dallas Cunningham), the sheriff. The arrival of the sheriff complicates things a good deal more.

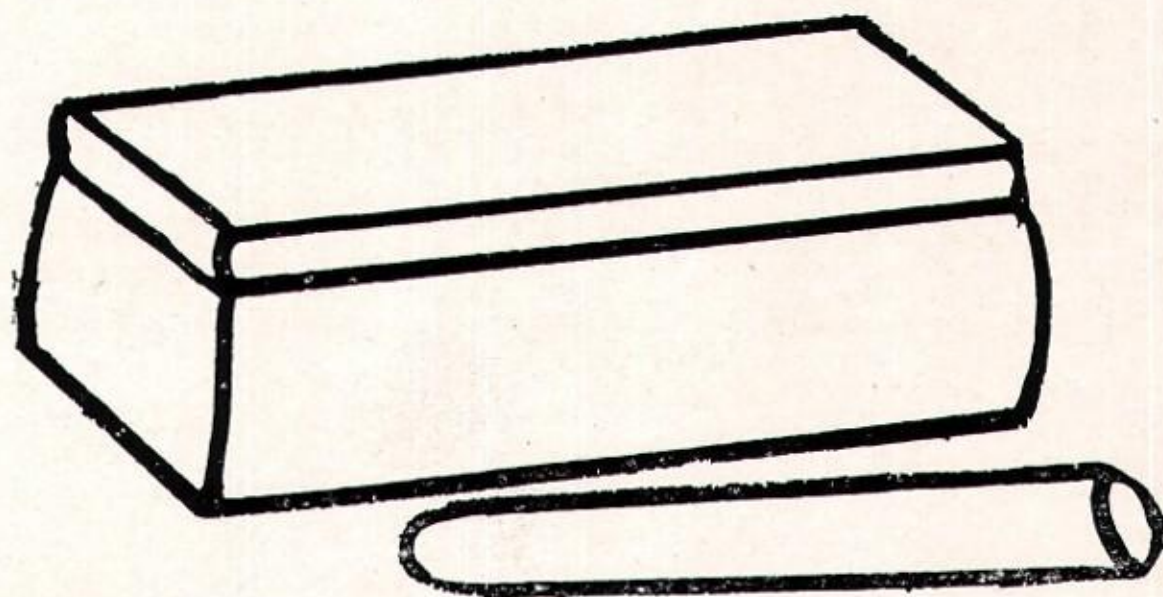

But as all plays go, things turn out for the best. They find out who the real Mr. Goodwin is, Don is given a job, and Sherry and Louise are promised a screen test.

Peace, supposedly, came to Desert Inn once again.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

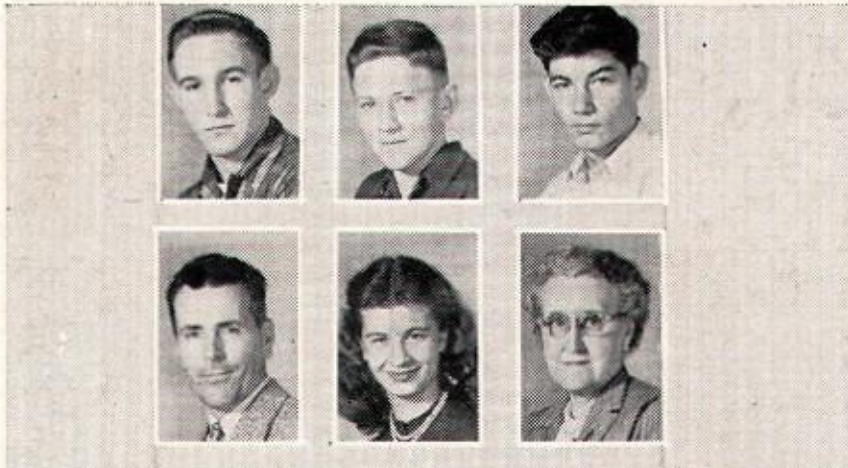

The time is June and school has just let out. Angie, a girl of 17, has the whole summer to look forward to. The problem is that she is not too sure about boys, as she has never had a date. Then Jack, her friend Jane's (who goes after a man when she wants him) ex-boy friend comes into her life. Angie's growing up is nothing new to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morrow, as they have two older girls. Margaret, who is engaged to Art, her baby-faced one, tries to help Angie. Lorraine, her hopeful sister, is sophisticated and rather snobbish at times. She falls in love with Martin, who has little personality and he jilts her. Laughs a plenty are furnished by 10-year-old Kitty, who doesn't understand this "growing-up period" and hates boys. She finally gets soft-hearted in the end when Angie leaves. Margie is a gossip girl, and her gossiping causes trouble between Jack and Angie. Fitz, her steady, doesn't have much to say, but when Jack and Angie break up, Tony, a wolf, is right on hand to take over, but Angie loves only Jack, who becomes jealous of Tony. Of course they get back together before Angie leaves for college and Jack leaves for Oklahoma and have an agreement to write to each other and see each other if possible during vacations.

The cast and the director, Mr. Kabat, worked hard for many weeks to make this play a success and deserve a great deal of credit.

MUSIC

SENIOR BAND

This year the music groups were divided up. Miss Ludwig had the Girls' Glee Club; Mr. Dambach, the Junior, Intermediate and Senior Bands, the Boys' Glee Club and the Mixed Chorus. There was no Orchestra this year.

Miss Ludwig organized the Girls' Glee Club so that they had election of officers. The president was Jean Segrist; secretary and treasurer—Marion Ross; librarian—Nancy Ells; stage managers—Carol Whitmire, Beverly Frye and Maxine Jennings. This year the Girls' Glee Club went to the district contest; they were in the county festival, and presented a concert with the Boys' Glee Club and Mixed Chorus.

The Boys' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Dambach, presented a vocal concert, went to the county festival and participated in the contests. Both groups were out to do special numbers for the different organizations of the town.

The Mixed Chorus presented a Christmas cantata this year for the Rotary and the public. The chorus has done a cappello work. It also was in the concert, contest and county festival.

The band during the past year was very showy with its new step and march beat. The band went to all the football games and put on some real peppy shows to match our unbeaten team. The band had its own concert. The band also participated in the contest, county festival and summer parades. Mr. Dambach started the Intermediate Band this year. The Intermediate Band is between the Junior and Senior Band.

This year Delta perhaps had the greatest football team in its history. The Panthers won ten games without a defeat. This is the best record of any Delta football team. They rolled up an amazing total of 470 points to their opponents 125. The big cats avenged last year's upset at the hands of Swanton by beating the Bulldogs 27 to 0. The victory gave Delta the Maumee Valley Championship. The Panthers tenth game was a post-season tilt with previously unbeaten Clay. They trounced them 33 to 7. This year the team was paced by Ed Tovatt, Ray O'Neill, Marion Frank and Dick Basich, all of whom received first team All-Maumee Valley Honors. Jim Slagle and Hal Dailey received second team honors. Dick Basich, our fine halfback, was second in the state in individual scoring with 222 points. All ten victories were impressive and we wish to congratulate the team and coaches for a great season, one that we will remember for a long time to come.

This year Delta had a much better than average basketball team. Playing a tough schedule, we won 11 games while losing only 4 during the regular season. These victories were enough to give us a share in the Maumee Valley championship with Ottawa Hills. Then the Panthers went on to the Fulton county tournament, where they came in second only to Archbold. Archbold was a big thorn in our side as they beat us three times this year. We wish to congratulate the team and coaches for their many fine showings this year.

QUEEN

HOMECOMING

Our annual Homecoming Game took place on October 12. We played Montpelier and won. Our lovely queen was Donna Haas. At the game she was presented with a beautiful bouquet of yellow mums. At the dance after the game, she was crowned by Ray O'Neill, a member of the football team. The queen and her attendants made a very striking scene as they came through the door of the gym. The colors of the evening gowns were very effective. The queen wore an attractive ballerina gown of white. She wore at her wrist her corsage, which was made up of red roses and white baby mums. The other girls wore evening gowns of pink, green, orchid, and red and white. Their corsages were also made up of roses and mums to go with their evening gowns. All in all, it was a very exciting and memorable affair.
